

LEARN HOW TO PUBLISH A MAGAZINE

The introductory course in magazine publishing is especially intended for people working in Africa for existing or planned Christian magazines. The course will provide an overview on magazine management, editing, and design.

Program

This five-day course begins on Sunday afternoon and ends the following Thursday with a banquet and graduation ceremony.

Trainers

An international team of three African and three American will teach in English with French interpretation. It will be possible to consult with the trainers directly.

Course manual

A new textbook in English and French makes it easy to follow the teaching and provides additional information for review after the course.

Certificate

Students who attend all sessions will receive a certificate from Magazine Training International certifying that the course has been completed in its entirety.

Hands-on Workshop

The conference will be followed by a one-day hands-on workshop for a limited number of publications

“This training will help my wife and I relaunch the magazine for high school students, give it a national dimension, and create an even stronger foundation for the magazine.”

WHO WE ARE

Magazine Training International's mission is to encourage, strengthen, and provide training and resources to Christian magazine publishers as they seek to build the church and reach their societies for Christ.

OUR MISSION

Over the past 33 years, we have held nearly 70 on-site conferences and courses in more than 20 countries on magazine management, editing, design, article writing, digital publishing and other areas related to publishing.

We also offer online courses and workshops, free e-books, training videos, course manuals in a dozen languages, and other print, digital, audio, and audio-visual materials in an extensive library on the MTI website.

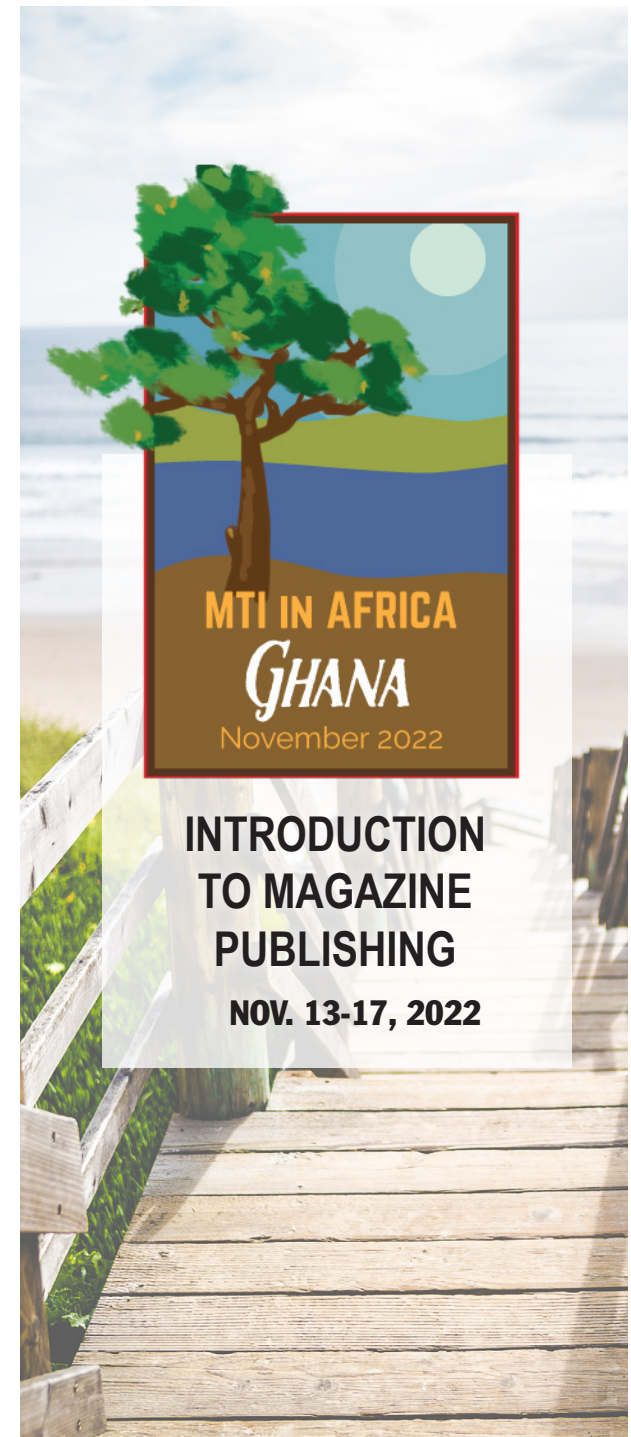

ONE-DAY WORKSHOP NOV. 18

There will also be a limited-enrollment, one-day Hands-on Magazine Startup Workshop for participants in the Introduction to Magazine Publishing Course who are planning to start or re-start a magazine.

Enrollment is limited to 10 proposed or existing magazines with up to three staff or volunteers each. Enrollment is on a first-come, first-served basis. All participants must have taken part in the course preceding the workshop.
